

CT Community Action: Partnerships that Work. Results that Matter.

Key facts about CT Community Action

- ☀️ CT Community Action Agencies (CAAs) are the federally-designated network of anti-poverty agencies in Connecticut.
- ☀️ CT CAAs are foundational partners in CT's Human Services Infrastructure (HSI) and form a statewide service delivery system.
  - CT CAAs are your connection to CT's human service network.
  - Every person that walks through our doors receives a universal intake and pre-assessment to identify needs. Services are then coordinated holistically to achieve the best possible outcomes for the customer.
- ☀️ CT CAAs are accountable for achieving positive results. Results-Based Accountability systems that measure customer outcomes have been implemented.
- ☀️ CT CAAs have more than 365 partnerships coordinating efficient and effective services to meet the needs of low-income residents in our communities.
- ☀️ CT CAAs utilize the Quality Community Action Assessment process to ensure high standards in governance and management.
- ☀️ CT CAA Boards are a partnership of public, private and low-income representatives working together at the local level to end poverty.
- ☀️ CT CAAs help low-income individuals, children and families, and the elderly maintain their independence and improve their lives.
